For the last year or so, I've been reading these summary & analysis books for some books

Iâ€™ve read. Honestly, it helps me appreciate the book a lot more and makes me take a look back at it once again. Recently, I finished authorâ€™s Sylvia Dayâ€™s Crossfire series. Holy cow, Iâ€™ve been waiting for it for so long and I finally got my hands on it and I sped through it. I regret that I did it, but I wanted to see if there were any summary & analysis books covered this particular book. Thankfully, there was. This particular one was created by the authors of Book*Sense. Iâ€™ve read some of their books on other novels and so far I have not been disappointed so I gave this edition a try. It took apart the book, bit by bit, and reminded me and brought me up to speed on different parts of the book I may have overlooked. The author made a quick, easy summary of the chapters, making sure that I didnâ€™t miss a beat. Gideon and Eva are this couple who have had their ups and downs, if youâ€™ve read the novel. They love one another but have had extremely abusive pasts that have hindered each other to constantly screw up this bliss in one way or another. There were times I wanted to scream at both of them to get help. Anyways, long story short, this helped me rekindle my love for the final book and Iâ€™m planning on re-reading it again this next week. If youâ€™re stuck for time or even speed read but donâ€™t have time to read the book over, summary & analysis books are the way to go! It took apart the book, bit by bit, and reminded me and brought me up to speed on different parts of the book I may have overlooked. The author made a quick, easy summary of the chapters, making sure that I didnâ€™t miss anything.
