Customer Reviews
This story goes where the regular run of the mill plots do not go. A lot of interesting material covering survival mode in a barren, burnt out world along with some enticing erotica to keep things from getting too serious. How will our young male survivor and his beautiful step-mom deal with what is to be their new every day life of staying alive in very close and intimate quarters? And what really are they to expect from the uncertain future? Only time will tell and time is moving fast forward!
Had to be a young man to perform like that!!!!!

I enjoyed it, would like to see more chapters.
